DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-22 are currently pending.

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-10, drawn to a chimeric protein capable of inhibiting both cellular and humoral immune responses and having a C5b-9 inhibitory domain and a T cell inhibitory domain, classified in class 530, subclass 350.
 - II. Claims 11-17, drawn to chimeric DNA encoding a domain with C5b-9 inhibitory activity and a domain with T cell inhibitory activity, classified in class 536, subclass 23.1.
 - III. Claim 18-20, drawn to transgenic cells, tissues and organs comprising a chimeric protein capable of inhibiting both cellular and humoral immune responses and having a C5b-9 inhibitory domain and a T cell inhibitory domain, classified in class 800, subclass 13.
 - IV. Claims 1, 21 and 22, drawn to a chimeric protein having a domain with C3 inhibitory activity and a domain with T cell inhibitory activity, classified in class 530, subclass 350.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the chimeric protein of Group I can also be made by chemical means, without regard to the DNA & cells of Group II.
3. Inventions I and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the chimeric protein of Group I can also be used as an immunogen for raising antibodies in a subject animal or as an additive in in vitro studies of complement activation. Further, transgenic cells, tissues and organs "comprising" the chimeric protein also read upon entities which are transgenic for an unrelated trait that have been administered the chimeric protein by other means.
4. Inventions I and IV are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are drawn to different chimeric proteins. The protein of Group I has C5b-9 inhibitory activity while the protein of Group IV has C3 inhibitory activity. The activity of each is directed against a different component of the complement system. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

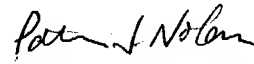

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to F. Pierre VanderVegt whose telephone number is (571) 272-0852. The examiner can normally be reached on M-Th 6:30-4:00; Alternate Fridays 6:30-3:00.
